on the Declaration of Independence, had descended to the tomb, and the venerable Carroll alone remained among the living the government of the city of New York deputed a committee to wait on the illustrious survivor, and obtain from him, for deposit in the public hall of the city, a copy of the Declaration of 1776, graced and authenticated anew with his sign manual. The aged patriot yielded to the request, and affixed with his own hand to a copy of the instrument the grateful, solemn, and pious supplemental declaration which follows: "Grateful to Almighty God for the blessings which, through Jesus Christ our Lord, he has conferred on my beloved country in ber emancipation, and on permitting me, under circumstances of mercy, to live to the age of eighty-nine years, and to survive the fiftieth year of American Independence, adopted by Congress on the 4th of July. 1776, which I originally subscribed on the 2d day of August of the same year, and of which I am now the last surviving signer, I do hereby recommend to the present and future generations the principles of that important document as the best inheritance their ancestros could bequeath to them, and pray that the civil and religious liberties they have secured to my country may be perpetuated to remotest posterity, and extended to the whole family of man. CHAS. CARROLL, of Carrollton. August 2, 1826.

FROM ROME .- On New Year's day the Pope received the French officers. General All the above imported and bottled by himself, Goyon made no political allusion. The Pope approved of the expeditions to Syria and China. He also said that in defending Gaeta the French fleet serves a just and holy cause. The Pope avoided making any other political allusion, and said nothing concerning the Emperor Napoleon.

A letter from Rome dated Christmas day

"This morning in the basilica of St. Peter's the usual high mass was celebrated, the Pope officiat-Physicians who use Wines and Liquors in their ing. The ceremony acquired unusual interest from the belief which many entertain that this is the last Christmas day that will thus be celebrated in St. Peter's by a sovereign pontiff. Mass over, the Pope was carried out of the church in his portable throne, according to custom, preceded by the cardinals, bishops, and all his court, his triple crown on his head, before the two great fans of ostrich feathers, set with the eyes of peacocks' feathers, symbolical of the vigilance required of his Holiness and also of the supposed fact that the eyes of all men are fixed upon him. Hardly ever more than at the present moment did the symbol indicate the truth, especially as regards the vigilance necessary in his present most difficult position. For the first time on an occasion of this kind, the Panal Zonaves (Franco Belgians) were on duty among the troops, forming the double line through which the Pope was carried." "THIRTY-SIX THIRTY."-The reader who s curious to know exactly where runs this oft-mentioned line, will get a clear idea or many flattering testimonials he has received with it by taking the map and tracing it as regard to the superiority of his ALES, from the follows:-It commences at the point on the Atlantic coast where the dividing line between Virginia and North Carolina commences: passes along the line dividing those States; along the line between Tennessee superior quality of PURE ALE, he hopes to merit a share of public patronage. and Kentucky; along the line between the States of Missouri and Arkansas; and thence through the territory of the Cherokee Nation, through New Mexico, striking the eastern boundary of the State of California a short distance South of the middle, striking the Pacific a short distance South of OMMONLY known in this region as EXCEL-Monterey Bay.
